PRODUCTION TEAM

We extend our gratitude to the following crew members for making this production possible!

Conchetta Carbone Media Specialist

Ms. Carbone has worked at SMS for 13 years. She loves teaching science. #wedoscience is her class hashtag. She enjoys traveling, spending time with family and friends, and supporting the SMS Drama Club in any way that she can.

Roberta Taylor Community Liason

Ms. Taylor has worked here as Social Worker for the last 3 years. She has 19 years experience as a Social Worker and five years as a Special Education teacher. She enjoys traveling, spending time with family and working crew for the Drama Club with Mrs. Small.

CHARLES SMALL Sound Technician

Proud stage crew veteran and Mrs. Small's better half—well, at least her half that handles all the soundscapes! He's been twirling the knobs and hitting the cues for Mrs. Small's productions for 15 solid years. That's right, he shaped the audio waves before their rings came into the picture. Give this man a soundboard and he'll give you a symphony, but ask him for a speech and he'll happily hand over the mic.

SHOUT OUTS!

Thank you to the SMS staff! You go above and beyond and we are ever so grateful!

Mr. Phoenix Thank you for all that you do. You took the stage. We love that!

Mr. Joseph

Thank you for always checking in to see if we need your help!

Ms. Carbone

Thanks for being my left and right hand, 3rd and 4th hands and all my other hands.

Ms. Taylor

Thanks for being a friend. Travel down the road and back again...

Thank you to the SMS PTG, Parents and other friends of the Drama Club!

Danielle J. Small

Director & Choreographer

NYC DOE Theater Educator, 20 Years NECSD Theater Educator, 4 Years SMS Theater Educator, 2023-2024

"With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." Matthew 19:26 "

Mrs. Small approaches this production of "Annie Jr." with both nostalgia and excitement as it represents a cherished bookend to her distinguished teaching career. Nearly two decades ago, this very musical marked the beginning of her journey in theater education, making its revival a moment of deep personal significance. Her first encounter with the show saw the young talents of 2nd to 6th graders from PS. 11 in Brooklyn. This production featured Justine Skye — now an acclaimed artist on the hit tv show, "Grown-ish" and on the R&B scene — in the role of Grace Farrell.

In similar fashion, the play was rebirth 8 years ago when Small, in her inaugural year at PS 109 in the Bronx, chose to stage "Annie Jr." once more. It seems only fitting, for tradition's sake, that she would select this beloved musical to debut at South Middle school, solidifying her legacy.

Over the span of her 24 year career, Small has masterfully produced an impressive array of performances, from vignettes and straight plays to musicals, showcasing her breadth and versatility in the arts. In this heartfelt venture, Small extends her gratitude to the SMS community — the home that has warmly embraced and supported her artistic endeavors in Newburgh Enlarged City School District. She celebrates her students and their families for their unwavering dedication to the craft.

Lastly, with deep affection and appreciation, Small dedicates this performance to her family, whose love, resilience, and patience have been the bedrock of her success. Their invisible yet indispensable presence behind the scenes, as her lifelong stage crew, has been a testament to their dedication.

Enjoy the show!

Mrs. Cmall
