

Relations with Private Schools

The Board of Education recognizes the need and worth of cooperative relationships with private schools, and encourages members of the school staff to work with their counterparts in private schools on educational matters within the framework established by the State Department of Education.