

Horizons-on-the-Hudson International Baccalaureate (IB)

World School's

COMMUNITY BOOK FAIR

Barnes & Nobles, 1245 Route 300 (Union Ave) Newburgh, NY 12550

Saturday, December 10, 2011, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Schedule of Activities

10 a.m. to 5p.m.

- ✓ Welcome (10 mins.)
- ✓ Art Show
- ✓ Face Painting
- ✓ Arts and Crafts
- ✓ Nook Raffle ($5 per ticket/On sale now at HOH, and at Book Fair)
- ✓ Suggested Reading List
- ✓ Teacher Wish List
- ✓ IB Display
- ✓ World Culture Holiday Traditions Display
- ✓ Who Am I? Guessing Game –

(See a childhood picture of an HOH member of staff, learn about their favorite childhood book, and then guess who they are)

- ✓ PTO collection of care package and winter items for the homeless – toiletries such as soap, shampoo, lotion, toothpaste, hand sanitizer, and hats, gloves, scarves, ear muffs, etc.

10 a.m. to 11 a.m. & 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

- ✓ Storytime--Read-alouds, Traditional and Kamishibai (Japanese) Storytelling
(also includes Mother Goose who appears from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. only)

11 a.m. to 12 noon

- ✓ Cookie Monster appearance (11 a.m.)

- ✓ IB Presentation (11:30 a.m.)
- ✓ Chorus (11:40 a.m.)

12 noon to 1 p.m.

Author visit by Karen Orloff

author of I Wanna Iguana, and If Mom Had Three Arms

1 p.m. to 2 p.m.

- ✓ World Culture Holiday Traditions: Special Presentations
(includes Historian David Greenwood's presentation about his Wappinger Indian and European holiday traditions)

2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

- ✓ Magic Show with Mr. Rajcoomar (2 p.m.)
- ✓ Poetry Readings (2:30 p.m.)

3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

- ✓ Career Corner – Learn what inspired our speakers, and what it takes to pursue their professions
(Teachers, school psychologist, historian, supreme court judge, lawyer, civil engineer, bio-chemist, veterinarian, make-up artist, social worker, police officer, fireman, HVAC mechanic, and the list keeps growing!)

4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

- ✓ Storytelling continues
- ✓ Nookle Raffle Drawing (4:30 p.m.)