A Note from the Director:

This musical gives our students the opportunity to actively practice components of the New York State Elementary Learning Standards for the Arts in Theatre.

With audience in mind for purpose, the focus of our rehearsals is to present information in a meaningful way. The skills that are practiced while rehearsing are to make eye contact with your audience, speak in a clear strong voice with an attention to pronunciation, diction, phrasing and vocal expression, and to exercise appropriate facial expression and body language to give optimal understanding and meaning to what is being presented.

There is also a strong emphasis on recognizing, understanding the background behind and taking on the character traits and mannerisms in the development of the character, they are portraying in the musical. This drama component supports the concepts learned in their ELA curriculums.

The goal is to have our students practiced and prepared to insure a feeling of confidence when speaking to an audience. While doing so, they gain the understanding that the quality of their part in the musical is an important contribution to the success of the finished production.

The Lion King, Jr. has never been performed at Fostertown before and all costumes, sets, and props have been created by our own faculty and staff. We are thrilled with the end product. Enjoy the show!

Why Teach Theatre in Our Schools?

Theatre is SCIENCE
Theatre is MATHEMATICAL
Theatre is FOREIGN LANGUAGE
Theatre is HISTORY
Theatre is PHYSICAL EDUCATION
Theatre is LANGUAGE ARTS
Theatre is BUSINESS
Theatre is TECHNOLOGY
Theatre is ECONOMICS

Theatre is taught in schools

Not because you are expected to major in theatre,

Not because you are expected to perform all through life,

Not so that you can relax,

Not so you can have fun,

But

So you will recognize BEAUTY
So you will be SENSITIVE
So you will be closer to an INFINITE BEYOND THIS WORLD,
So you will have more LOVE,
More COMPASSION,

More COMPASSION, More GENTLENESS, More GOOD, in short, More LIFE.

Of what value will it be to make a prosperous living unless you know how to live?

That is why theatre is taught in our schools.
